The London Gazette.

Published by Authority.

From Saturday November 9. to Tuesday November 12. 1717.

Vienna, November 6.

THE Electoral Prince of Saxony has not yet been at Court by Reaſon of his Indiſpoſition, which ſtill continues upon him. In the mean while it is thought he uſes his Endeavours to get the Ceremonial or ſome other Point he may have in View ſettled to his Satisfaction: As to his Marriage with one of the Arch-Dutcheſſes, though it be generally talked of, not the leaſt Step has yet been publickly made towards it at Court. The Prince of Portugal, after having lived out of Town ever ſince his Return from the Campaign, went to Court two Days ago to Compliment the Emperour on St. Charles's Day, and is to be lodged there again, as he was laſt Winter. We have no News from Hungary, but are expecting to hear what Enterprize the Detachment lately ſent from Belgrade is gone upon. The Aga is not yet returned with the Reſolution of the Turkiſh Court.

Copenhagen, Nov. 17. Yeſterday in the Afternoon, Sir George Byng, with the Squadron of Britiſh Men of War, ſailed from hence with a fair Wind for England. Three Frigates are left behind in the Baltick, to take under their Convoy ſome Merchant Ships which are ſtill expected from the Ports there; and three Men of War are to continue ſome time longer on the Coaſt of Norway.

Madrid, Nov. 1. On Tueſday the 26th paſt in the Night, the King was ſuddenly taken dangerouſly ill at the Eſcurial. On his reviving a little from the Fit that had ſeized him, he was deſired by the Queen to conſent to his being removed hither; accordingly an Order came on the 27th for the Royal Coaches and Litters to be ſent to the Eſcurial, and on the 29th, between Eight and Nine a Clock at Night, their Majeſties came to the Palace here. Immediately all the Grandees in Town repaired thither, to pay their Duty to his Majeſty, whom they found in a very weak Condition. Since that Time no Perſon has been admitted to ſee his Majeſty, the Queen her ſelf, with only an Italian Servant, the Cardinal and a Phyſician, attending and looking to him. The Duke of Eſcalona, Majordomo Mayor (or Chamberlain) having given ſome Offence ſince the King has been ill, has been commanded to depart the Court and retire to a Seat he has in Caſtile. An Order is publiſhed, for all Military Officers who are here, to repair to their reſpective Regiments within three Days, on Pain of his Majeſty's higheſt Diſpleaſure. On the 27th paſt Colonel Solis, Son of the Duke of Montellano, arrived in nine Days from Sardinia, with Advice of the taking of 400 Imperialiſts who had been ſent to the Aſſiſtance of the Marqueſs de Rubi. Don Joſeph de Amezaga, Major-General, is appointed Governour of Cagliari. Orders were lately ſent for the building of eight Men of War in the Ports of Biſcay, and ſix at San Felice in Catalonia.

Whitehall, Nov. 11. Repeated Informations upon Oath having been given to ſeveral of His Majeſty's Juſtices of the Peace, of an illegal Conventicle held at Dr. Welton's Houſe in Goodman's Fields, as likewiſe that Arms had been ſeen carried into the ſaid Houſe, Yeſterday between